

united speciality insurance

U.S. Specialty Insurance Company provides property and casualty insurance products and services in the United States. The company specializes in aviation, occupational accident, alternative workers' compensation, professional indemnity, and directors' and officers' liability insurance products and services.

The company offers general aviation products, such as various fixed wing and rotor wing aircraft insurance products, such as corporate aviation/industrial aid, pleasure and business aircrafts, charter services, aircraft sales, and helicopters products; airport liability insurance products, including a range of airport coverage's from individuals who own or lease hanger space to airports, Insureds have to be able to count on their insurance when the need arises and clients depend on AmRisc for unique and sometimes difficult property insurance coverages.

That's why consistency, stability and creativity play such huge roles in our evaluation of Specialty Markets. In selecting the below carriers, AmRisc stands ready to deliver the dependability and diversity our clients require.

Top